

Empowering Bioentrepreneurs:

Academia's Guide for Biopharma Business and Innovation.

Date: 5 March 2024

Venue: Room MaSHARES Co-working Space, Mahidol University, Salaya

Time	Speakers/attendees	Topics
8.30-8.40	Welcome speech by the Director of Institute of Molecular Biosciences, Professor Narattaphol Charoenphandhu, M.D., Ph.D.
8.40–9.30	Dr.Gergely Tóth, PhD, MBA CEO Cantabio Inc., Honorary Associate Professor University College London, UK.	Introduction to the business of biotech: biotech industry drivers, current financing trends, innovation and bioentrepreneurship
9.30–10.00	Dr.Max Zhu, PhD, MBA Cantabio Inc., Advisor for the Cambridge Ageing and Longevity Society	Cantabio Pharmaceuticals: developing novel therapeutics & diagnostics for ageing related diseases such as Alzheimer's (AD) and Parkinson's diseases (PD)
10.00–10.20	All attendees who are interested in Bioentrepreneurship, and biobusiness	Discussion about Bioentrepreneurship, biobusiness including fundraising and crowdfunding
10.20–10.35	Refreshment
10.35–11.00	Asst.Prof.Dr.Duangrudee Tanramluk, Institute of Molecular Biosciences	Data-driven drug design platforms
11.00–11.20	Assoc.Prof.Dr.Sarin Chimnaronk, Center of Advanced Therapeutics (CAT), Institute of Molecular Biosciences	Challenges for the Center for Advanced Therapeutics
11.20–11.40	Dr.Arpoporn Sutipatanasomboon, Molecular Agricultural Biosciences Cluster, Institute of Molecular Biosciences	Agri-biotechnology for sustainable sourcing of natural resources and farming
11.40–12.00	Prof. Dr.Banthit Chetsawang, Dr.Ekkaphot Khongkla, Dr. Siraprapa Boobphahom, Research Center for Neuroscience, Institute of Molecular Biosciences	Research on neurodegeneration and neuroprotection at RCN-MB-MU